VOL. XXVIII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, AUGUST 3, 1900. 9 A. M.

NO. 44.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

The L. & N. will replace the 60-pound rails with 80 pounders on its heavy grades on the Cumberland track.

George Ballard, who killed Tom Irving Johnson at Berea depot Saturday, surrendered. His plea is self-defense.

The census office at Washington has made public the population of the city of Cincinnati. It is 325,902, an increase over the last census of 28,994.

Williamsburg Institute has notice of the coming of more girls than it can accommodate. It sadly needs a girl's boarding home which can be erected for $2,000.—Argus.

C. D. Chesnut, for 30 years cashier of the Madison National Bank, resigned his position and has been succeeded temporarily by Mr. Waller Bennett, president of the bank.

Dr. John Williams, a prominent physician of Ford, 12 miles north of Richmond, is reported to have been drowned in a collision at sea, while en route to visit his old home in North Wales.

The friends of Cam Williams, of Pittsburg, who was sentenced a year ago to imprisonment for two years in the State penitentiary for killing Chas. Jones, a young man, are getting up a petition to Gov. Beckham asking for the release of the prisoner.

A $20,000 fire occurred at Harrodsburg, Tuesday, which destroyed two business houses. The corner house was occupied as a dry goods and millinery establishment by Mrs. John Bixler.

The adjoining storehouse was owned by Mrs. Litsey and was occupied by Marion Davis, jewelry and furniture dealer. It is thought the fire was due to incendiary.

CHURCH MATTERS.

It turns out that Schweinfurth, the Illinois messiah, has married his "Eve" and has turned christian scientist.

Rev. B. C. Horton will preach at Presberville next Sunday and at the Stanford Methodist church, Sunday the 12th.

Mrs. Welch has a letter from Rev. George O. Barnes stating that he and wife celebrated July 20th, the anniversary of their marriage, by joining Dowie's Zion Christian Catholic church. Alas and alack!

Four Zionist elders who had been using incendiary language were captured by a mob at Mansfield, O. Two of them were released on promise to leave, and the others were stripped, painted and paraded through the streets.

Georgia papers say that Sam Jones, the evangelist, is about to forsake his old home, at Cartersville, that State, and remove to the vicinity of Atlanta, and they intimate that his change of residence will be made simply because he has "lost his grip" on the Cartersville people.

At Ulisses, Kas., one night last week the Rev. Mr. Johnson prayed to God to save the farmers' crops, and soon torrents of water came down. The rain was the heaviest for many years, and it continued all night. The Rev. Mr. Johnson and his congregation could not leave the school-house and the night was spent in prayer and songs of thanksgiving.

HUBBLE.

S. Dunbar bought a pair of work mules of B. G. Fox for $280. L. G. Hubble sold his fat hogs to Fox & McCarty at 4c. George Wood went to Bee Lick Saturday to receive about 100 sheep. F. C. Rankin sold a work mule to B. G. Fox for $120. J. C. Eubanks sold his new crop of hay to J. H. Baughman, delivered on car at Stanford, for 55c. L. G. John Robinson has gone to the mountains after some sheep. Mr. Bell, of Ohio, is in looking after some feeding cattle.

If you have a baby in the house you will wish to know the best way to check any unusual looseness of the bowels, or diarrhoea so common to small children. O P M. Holiday, of Deming, Ind., who has an eleven months' old child, says: "Through the months of June and July our baby was teething and took a running off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach. His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and gave him four drops in a teaspoonful of water and he got better at once." For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

Four girls were caught by the undertow while bathing at Ocean City and drowned.

Aaron Noaks, 25, a cousin of Capt. R. R. Noaks, was married to Miss Rebecca Harris, 19, at Rev. J. G. Livingston's by that gentleman on the 1st.

At the age of 98 years a woman of Waterloo, N. Y., has just taken upon herself the vows of matrimony, and is proud of the fact that she is probably the oldest bride in the world.

Without previous notice to their many friends Mr. Charles D. Miller and Miss Mary Gentry were united in marriage Saturday night at the residence of Rev. Jasper K. Smith, who officiated, the attendants being Mr. Duke Gordon, of this city and Miss Stella Wilmot, of Frankfort. The happy couple repaired to the residence of the groom's brother, Mr. A. D. Miller, and there received the congratulations of awaiting guests who had been apprised of the marriage.—Richmond Clinax.

A MINISTER'S GOOD WORK.

"I had a severe attack of bilious colic got a bottle Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, took two doses and was entirely cured," says Rev. A. A. Power, of Emporia, Kan. "My neighbor across the street was sick for over a week, had two or three bottles of medicine from the doctor. He used them for three or four days without relief, then called in another doctor who treated him for some days and gave him no relief, so discharged him. I went over to see him next morning. He said his bowels were in a terrible fix, that they had been running off so long that it was almost bloody flux. I asked him if he had tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and he said, 'No. I went home and brought him my bottle and gave him one dose; told him to take another dose in fifteen or twenty minutes if he did not find relief, but he took no more and was entirely cured. I think it the best medicine I have ever tried.' For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

REMEDY FOR FLUX.—Squire James M. Lillard gives us this "sure cure" for flux, says the Harrodsburg Democrat: Fill a tumbler half full of apple vinegar, put a teaspoon full each of Crab Orchard and Epsom salts and a tablespoonful of table salt. Take a spoonful every hour until six doses have been taken and then every two hours, and you will be well before you know it.

A NIGHT OF TERROR.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought she must soon die from Pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of Consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and is further and completely cured." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Croup, Croup, and Lung diseases. Only 5c and 25c bottles free at Penny's drug store.

Robert Cunningham, 60, proprietor of the Cunningham Hotel, at Kansas City, was fined $500 in police court for "mashing," on complaint of Miss Maud Watson and Miss Emma Pryor, who stopped at his hotel.

The laws of health require that the bowels move once each day and one of the penalties for violating this law is piles. Keep your bowels regular by taking a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when necessary and you will never have that severe punishment inflicted upon you. Price 25 cents. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

LANCASTER.

Garrard county will be well represented at the Hustanville fair.

The coroner's jury agreed that Henry Hughes was killed by the north-bound train last Sunday morning about 3 o'clock.

Mr. C. A. Robinson had three cattle to die, which acted as if they were mad and it is reported that a rabid dog was seen snapping at them.

Elijah Stodghill and Lizzie Elmore, both colored, were arrested by Marshal Pierce and Judge Brown fined them $41 for a breach of the peace on Battle Row.

T. S. Elkin has bought E. W. Norris' meat store and will continue business at the same place. Mr. Norris has made many friends and Mr. Elkin is an old hand at the business.

Bro. Barnes' article in the INTERIOR JOURNAL in reference to the future existence of dogs, is full of good sense and reason. The faithful dog is truer than man and possesses traits that make us ashamed of ourselves. A good dog is more faithful than any man and a bad dog is better than a bad man.

Speaking of a call session of the Legislature to modify the election law, I suggest that in order to get close to the people, from whom all power comes, a law be enacted requiring the precincts to hold meetings 30 days before the election to appoint men to meet at the court house to appoint election officers. We follow this plan to nominate candidates for less important offices and the work is reasonable when we consider the fact that an election officer holds the position upon which depends the election of all officers and the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth.

The sudden death of Miss Dorcas Leavel, at her home three miles from town on Tuesday morning, of heart disease, caused a deep gloom to pervade the entire community. Funeral services were conducted at the Presbyterian church Wednesday by Revs. A. W. Crawford and H. N. Paigloner. A large crowd was in attendance and the services were duly impressive, many sympathetic chords being touched by the grief of the mother, sister and brothers. She was 18 years of age, just entering womanhood, and the picture of health, having been effected but a few moments before her death. She was a member of the Presbyterian church, very much admired by everybody and was related to some of the best families in the county.

F. B. Fissinger and two traveling men named Baker and Heizer, disappeared about the amount of their hotel bill and the latter left for Danville after paying part of the sum demanded. Fissinger swore out a warrant charging them with fraudulently obtaining hotel accommodations without paying for same. They were arrested in Danville, brought back and tried in Judge Brown's court, the jury agreeing that they were not guilty. Mr. Fissinger is now the defendant in two suits of $5,000 each, for damages on account of the arrests. Mr. Fissinger had charged them for all the meals during their stay, but they refused to pay for one meal which they did not eat, because chicken was not served, claiming that that was the contract at the beginning, which Mr. Fissinger denies. Tomlinson and Owsley represented the plaintiff and Herndon the defendants.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hughes, of Louisville, will visit relatives here next week. Mrs. R. E. McRoberts and daughter, Lettie, went to Louisville Wednesday. Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Dilchay, of Danville, is with us and will burn another brick kiln this fall. Prof. J. H. Patterson will conduct the Boyle county teachers' institute next week and is sure to give satisfaction. Various reports from the several legations at Peking, of dates as late as July 22, including one from Minister Conger, leave no doubt of their safety, and also force a realization of the necessity of the immediate departure of the relief column, for, though they are alive, the perils have not been removed. There seems to be no doubt that China and Russia are at war in the Amur government, and that all the ministers are held as hostages, but, further than that, there is no reliable news as to the political situation. The gravest danger seems to be that if the advance is begun the remaining Europeans in Peking may be put to death.

HON. BEN V. SMITH.

Of the democratic nominee for Congress in the 11th district, who will cut down the republican majority and make many hundred votes for the National and State tickets, his home paper, the Somerset Journal says:

Mr. Smith was born in 1860, on a farm in the northern part of Pulaski county, where he lived and toiled for a livelihood and to earn money with which to procure an education, alternatingly laboring, teaching school and attending Kentucky University. He was graduated in a Normal school in Ohio, receiving degree of A. B., and since, that of A. M. and L. L. B. He removed to Texas, where he remained engaged in teaching three years, returning to Somerset in 1890, where he was admitted to the bar and since that time has been actively engaged in the practice of his profession. His first active participation in politics was in 1895, in the campaign of Hardin and Clay, being a warm supporter of the former. In 1896 he was among the first to declare for the free coinage of silver and was sent as a delegate to the Chicago convention. In 1899 he was made a member of the State Central Committee and devoted his time and money to help organize the district. In 1897 he made his first race for office, the judgeship of Pulaski county, and, although McKinley's majority in the county was 1,509, Mr. Smith with difficulty, was defeated by the small majority of 392. Mr. Smith is a stump speaker of no mean ability, bright, confident and quick at repartee; always aggressive yet never abusive. He married a republican in Ohio, whom, with all his natural and acquired gifts in persuasive and argumentative power, he modestly confesses he has never been able to convert.

MOODY, who claims to have been nominated for Congress in the 7th district, declined to attend the meeting of the State central committee at Covington yesterday, but forwarded a copy of the official proceedings of the Paris convention, together with a letter protesting against the committee taking any action in the case, giving it as the opinion of himself and friends that the case has passed beyond party control and it is now only a question for the courts. Matters are in a very unfortunate muddle in the 7th and he is not a good democrat who does not strive to an amicable adjustment of the claims of the two so-called nominees.

POWERS made a miserable attempt to give a plausible reason for going to Louisville the day Goebel was shot, but he failed utterly. He said earlier in his testimony that Taylor had advised the sending home of the mountain mob as their presence was having a bad effect on the Legislature and causing the Brown democrats to desert him, and yet he puts up the flimsy story that he went to Louisville on the day of the assassination to get money to bring another mob from Western Kentucky. The stories do not consist, nor do many of the other statements of the witness, who for months has been schooling himself for the ordeal of testifying.

As a cross examiner Col. T. C. Campbell is not a marked success. He did fairly well with Powers, but Col. W. G. Welch could have made him get so tangled in his well studied story that he wouldn't know what he had sworn to before he got through. Very little credence should be put in the testimony of a man who swears to save his life. If Powers had Goebel killed, he would not hesitate at the lesser crime of swearing to a lie, which he has certainly done, if the other witnesses testified truthfully.

THE almost absolute certainty of a call for an extra session of the Legislature by Gov. Beckham to amend the election law so as to make it non-partisan, has thrown confusion into the ranks of republicans, whose only chance of success lies in having the law remain as it is. Gov. Beckham, we think, will be elected any way, but with the law changed so as to take away the ammunition of the enemy, his majority will be so great that none can gainsay it.

BRESSI, the anarchist who assassinated the King of Italy, must have been studying Kentucky republican methods of government by assassination. He deserves a little more consideration, however, than the Kentucky assassins, who hid their miserable tool and are trying to shield the infamous conspirators. He went out in the open and did the despicable deed.

THE republican district committee met at Nicholasville Wednesday and decided to hold a convention to nominate a candidate for Congress, at Richmond on the 20th, county conventions to name delegates to it to be held on the 18th at 1 P. M. The candidates are G. M. Davison, of Lincoln; Miles, of Jessamine; Cardwell, Mercer; Dr. Jno. M. Williams, Rockcastle; and Petty, Shelby.

The selection of Gov. James B. McCreary to conduct the campaign for the democrats is a wise and excellent one. He has had much experience in that line and always gets what he goes after. If his advice is followed there will be no mistakes during the campaign.

THE Louisville Post heads an article "Death to the Assassin," meaning some other assassin, of course, except the one that killed Goebel. The paper's whole effort from the beginning has been to shield him and prevent the punishment of the political conspirators, who are very close to it.

THE republicans are trying to get Capt. Irwin, the regularly nominated candidate for Congress in the Louisville district, to withdraw so as to fuse on a Brownie, but the captain won't hear of it. It seems the height of impudence to ask him to do so.

WE are indebted to Editor Loving Gaines, of the Elton Progress, for a nice compliment, which we would reproduce but for the fear some one might think we agree with certain allegations.

THE republicans will have their campaign headquarters in a hole in the ground. They have selected the basement of the Galt House for fixing up ways that are dark and tricks that are vain.

William Henry Jones, candidate for the republican nomination for Congress in the third district, has withdrawn, and the republicans and bolting democrats will fuse on McKenzie Moss, a plater.

POLITICAL.

A poll of the Indiana gold democrats shows that 90 per cent. of them will vote for Bryan this year.

Over 35,000 pensioners died last year, but the pension roll has grown until now it is only a few thousand short of a million.

Judge P. C. Walker, of Anderson, has shied his castor into the race for the republican nomination for Congress in this district.

Mr. Bryan says he will not discuss the income tax in his notification speech but will deal with the subject in his letter of acceptance.

The war department issued an order for a general election in Cuba to be held in September to elect delegates to a constitutional convention.

Democratic National Chairman Jas. Jones, who is in Washington, says the prospects for democratic control of the next House were never better.

There are now 11 presidential tickets in the field. This announcement would be a great deal more important if most of them were in the wheat field.

The forthcoming report of the commissioner of pensions will show a grand total of 993,528 pensioners on July 1, an increase of 2,010 for the year.

A vote for Yerkes is an endorsement of Taylor, for Yerkes endorsed Taylor and so did the convention that nominated Yerkes.—Hopkinsville New Era.

A Chicago man has made an even bet of $1,000 with a friend that on the popular vote in November Bryan will have a plurality of 384,700 votes over McKinley.

Republican United States Senator Wellington, of Maryland, announces that he will oppose the re-election of McKinley. He says the president deceived him.

Gov. James B. McCreary will be chairman of the campaign committee, and the other members S. J. Shackelford, Gus G. Coulter, B. W. Bradburn and Henry Bell.

Ludlow Petty, Shelbyville's postmaster, has, after much urging by republicans, agreed to make the race for the republican nomination in his congressional district.

Leading republicans are urging Wm. Henry Jones to withdraw from the Congressional race in the 3rd and let McKenzie Moss, a bolter and a turncoat, have a free track.

Farm laborers are wanted in the Northwest to help in the harvesting of the big wheat crop produced by the republican administration with the help of Providence.—Louisville Times.

The republican committee of the 11th district have formally renominated Vincent Boreling for Congress. A convention was also called at London, Sep. 22, to nominate a candidate for circuit judge.

A. H. Cardin, of Crittenden county, was nominated for governor by the populists in State convention. The platform opposes the Goebel election law and condemns government by assassination.

Now that Mr. Caleb Powers has explained the whole thing "like a perfect gentleman," give him a chromo and let him go pay his friends Taylor and Finley a visit over in "Injany."—Courier Journal.

A dispatch from Lexington says that three brothers, W. C. P. Breckinridge, Gen. Joseph J. Breckinridge and Atterney General Robert J. Breckinridge, neither agreeing with the other in politics, dined together Sunday.

The republicans are said to have decided to withdraw Capt. H. S. Irwin from the race for Congress in the Louisville district and substitute John Marshall. The change is said to have been decided upon after repeated conferences between the party leaders who think Irwin incapable of making a strong race.

Chairman Allie W. Young is alleged to have said that the republicans intend to bring Negro voters in the State this fall, and in this fraud they would have the support of Judge Walter Evans in his capacity as United States Judge. District Attorney Hill is investigating the matter with a view of prosecuting Young for contempt.

The society of anarchists at Pater-son, N. J., not only indorse their associate Bressi's assassination of the King of Italy, but threaten a resort to like methods for the betterment of government in this country. There are some persons in Kentucky who hold similar views, but they pose as special champions of the purity of the ballot.—Louisville Times.

The Philadelphia Press draws this lesson from the Georgetown assassination trials: "That politicians in office who seek to retain place by using their positions to protect (and promote) crime are assuring for themselves certain exposure and disgrace, and that their interference by lawless agencies in elections, or in the results of elections, will bring disaster to themselves and their party."

It is up to the republicans to find a man to make the race for Congress against Gilbert in the eighth district. They claim that their nomination carries with it a cinch on the election, but Bradley evidently does not believe it, for he has distinctly declined the proffered honor—even when it was tendered on a gold watch. Collier was the next favorite, but he will be too busy keeping Pension Agent Combs' job warm for him to make the race. Who wants it, gentlemen and pie hunters? It's going at a bargain.—Louisville Times.

The truth comes from Pekin at last. The Chinese government applauds the work of the Boxers; the bombardment of the legations was done by imperial authority, and has been approved by decrees; decrees command the Boxers to continue the extermination of the foreigners; the assassination of Baron Von Ketteler was premeditated and was done by an imperial officer.

POWERS HAS HIS INNINGS.

GEORGETOWN, Aug. 2.—The day was devoid of sensations, except that the prosecution greatly weakened Stamper's testimony on cross examination. Col. Mengel showed an order from Taylor issued two weeks before the assassination to have his regiment in readiness. R. L. McClure, a Lexington newspaper man, was put on the stand to impeach Golden, but the prosecution's objections were effective. Weaver is still in jail, important witnesses not appearing at the time set for his examination.

Powers continued his testimony Tuesday and practically denied everything the prosecution had proved. He declared he had no thought of murder and that the mob he took to Frankfort were more of angels than law breakers. His acquaintance with Robert Noaks is very slight and he held none of the conversations that Noaks ascribes to him. Powers said the only man he ever heard suggest that the matter could be settled by killing Goebel was Sheriff Burton. As Burton is dead now it is easy to lay all on him. Shortly after Col. Campbell took the witness in hand for cross-examination, the court adjourned.

Powers stood up fairly well on his cross-examination. He admitted many immaterial statements, but denied each and all the damaging statements sworn to by Cutton, Golden and Noaks, and finally denied that he ever conspired to kill Goebel. After his sensational testimony tending to discredit the testimony of Wharton Golden was given in the case. Rev. John Stamper, Golden's brother-in-law, said that Golden had told him he was to get $5,000 for testifying and also that he (Golden) had a written contract with Tom Campbell to receive $2,500 for each conviction in the assassination cases. The prosecution protested against the testimony on the ground that while Golden may have said these things, the proper method of impeaching his testimony would be to prove that any undue influences were brought to bear on him to secure his testimony. Judge Cantrell overruled the objection and allowed Mr. Stamper to proceed.

Stamper says he said to Golden: "I would be glad if he was out of the affair. Golden said he would be awfully glad also. I told him the fellows accused of the crime might be glad to give him $5,000 if he would leave the State. He said he would be glad to go if they would do it." Stamper said he believed Powers innocent and that he betrayed his brother-in-law in order to keep Powers from being hanged.

Powers said: "I also had a conference with Gov. Taylor, and he advised the bringing of a large body of men to show their interest in political affairs."

He also advised that they be brought armed, and promised to pay the expenses. I acted on this."

The roving barber, Weaver, who testified that he saw the gun fired from the secretary of State's office that killed Goebel, was arrested for perjury as it is said he was at Grayson Springs the day the assassin got in his work.

Powers went flatly on record as opposed to the secret assembling of militia under the guise of petitioners, but wanted Taylor to surround himself with militia and defy all civil law until the court of last resort had acted on the contest.

It develops that Taylor, although he is not before the court at Georgetown, is represented by counsel. James A. Violett is attending the trial to keep up with the evidence as it bears on Taylor's case.

Maj. John D. Harris has finished threshing his crop of wheat and reports that on 500 acres of land he had a yield of 10,850 bushels. A great many of the good house-keepers of the vicinity spread sumptuous dinners and the guests were all handsomely taken care of. Appended are the awards for the

NOTES FROM THE FAIR DAILY.
Squire L. B. Adams is improving slowly.
Kelly Boone, of Somerset, is one of the beaux at the fair.
Mrs. Lewis Russell is quite sick in the Peyton Well section.
John Steele Carpenter is too ill to attend the fair, his friends are sorry to know.
Carroll Bailey and Doc Drye are two of the most popular horsemen on the grounds.
T. L. Carpenter sold to Joe Snow a mare mule colt by J. C. Reid's Balaam for $85.
C. C. Carpenter will go to Colorado next week. He will feed cattle in Kansas this winter.
Warren Shelby has gone to Jeanette, La., to see his brother, Alf Shelby, who has fever.
Lyon & Hunn bought in Casey and Lincoln three broke mules at $100 and sold to Lutes & Co. 214 ewes at $3.65.
Misses Cyrena Dunn, of Danville, Catherine and Sarah Baughman, of Stanford, are with Misses Catherine and Edna Baughman.
Six splendid roadsters "faced the flag" in the mare or gelding roadster ring yesterday afternoon and excitement ran high until the ties were placed. It took the judges nearly a half hour to decide, but Bud James finally won with his splendid Bill Goebel. Goddard & Buster got the red with Tony Boy.
The worst turnout ring attracted a great deal of attention. The four rigs brought out were all so bad that the judges decided to divide the premium, giving one-fourth to each. The entries were Jones Baughman and John Dinwiddle, J. F. Florence, Jack Pinkerton and Howard Cannitz and R. E. Sallee. The first named drove a cow, the next two, jennets and the last the remains of a horse.
The following young folks form a merry house party at Miss Ada Cunningham's and are at the fair daily: Misses Pratt Hedden, Mt. Sterling, Reed Haggard, Winchester, Carrie Green, Mt. Sterling, Mary Lawrence Claxon, New Liberty, Sue Offutt, Georgetown, Eugene and Man-cye Ware, McKinney, and W. P. Stuart, Lexington, Richard Souder, Richmond, Breck Glass, Georgetown, Henry Browning, Falmouth.

C. T. Sandidge won the $150 saddle stake with Preston, Mack Hughes got second with a three-year-old brown mare and J. T. Crenshaw third with a sorrel stallion. Doc Drye rode E. P. Woods' Eagle Bird and many thought he ought to have had a tie. Bob Moreland, on a magnificent bay, had friends by the score.
